

POSTING OF POLITICAL SIGNS IN GREENLEE COUNTY

Political signs may only be posted with the prior approval of the Property Owner – including Freeport-McMoRan property. Contact the Greenlee County Assessor for assistance in determining the ownership of property before posting signs in any location including posting of political signs in road right-of-ways.

No signs may be placed along a State highway right-of-way without the permission of the Arizona Department of Transportation.

Remember that law requires a Blue Stake Permit before digging on public or private property. Call the Arizona Blue Stake Center at 1-800-782-5348 for further information.

Other Guidelines/Conditions/Restrictions:

- All signs/posters must have the name, address and telephone number of the responsible person/party written on or firmly attached to the back of the sign.
- All signs/posters must be removed within seven (7) days following subject election date. Removal includes the clean-up of all nails, wire, tape, stakes, posts or other materials used to erect the signs/posters.
- Signs/posters will be placed with courtesy and respect for other individual's/parties' political signage.

Miscellaneous Info:

- Both the federal and state law require an individual, public utility or contractor to obtain a Blue Stake Permit prior to any excavation or penetration of public or private property. The phone number for the Arizona Blue Stake Center is 1-800-782-5348.
- No sign may be placed along a State highway right-of-way without the permission of the Arizona Department of Transportation.
- The Greenlee County Assessor's Office can assist you to determine the ownership of specific property areas in Greenlee County.
